ISI SUMMER PROGRAMME

Located in the heart of Dublin, close to everything that the city has to offer.

Lessons take place in the prestigious Belvedere College, one of Ireland's most famous private schools. There are 36 full hours of lessons every two weeks, and students enjoy a full programme of afternoon and evening activities.

ISI's highly-qualified teachers deliver a well-planned syllabus of English lessons. The course includes a focus on the core English language skills with a particular emphasis on speaking. All students are encouraged to practise their English as much as possible during activities and free time.
